10. Item 9 (b)

Alliance Global Group Inc. (AGI) saw its 2022 consolidated revenues surge to a record level of P183.6-billion, reflecting a robust 20% growth from P152.8-billion the year before. However, increased inflationary pressures, higher cost of raw material and ongoing distribution bottlenecks pushed overall costs and expenses to grow at a faster pace. Altogether, these factors capped AGI's net income to P25.2-billion, an increase of 6% year-on-year, while attributable net profit amounted to P16.1-billion.

In 2021, however, Group performance included significant extraordinary items booked under its gaming unit, which if netted out should reflect a growth of 27% year-on-year in AGI's core profit, while core attributable income should show a 7% improvement from the year before.

The final figures are reflected in the audited financial statements which shall accordingly be submitted once available.
